

ARCONIC
Innovation, engineered.

Accomplish your carrier with us!

System Analyst

Location: Székesfehérvár

If you would like to:

- make impact on the World by your knowlegde
- perform in a creative environment
- grow together with a team as enthusiastic as you are

Join our Team!

Basic Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree from IT related accredited institution
- 3-5 years of experience in information services or manufacturing field
- 3 years of programming experience
- Strong language skills in English for daily communication in multinational environment

Preferred Qualification

- Bachelor's degree in Informatics/Information Technology
- Experience programming in one or more of the folowing platform/languages: C#, VB, SQL, .Net
- Knowledge of Oracle or any ERP system
- Strong communication skills in multinational environment
- Systems analysis and design skills

Position Profile

System Analyst supports the Company's business strategy and the location by providing in-depth business process knowledge using Windows technologies in specific business areas. This is an internal technical consulting role on .Net/MS SQL/Oracle technology platform. Work with business process owners to understand and support current business processes while identifying and leading opportunities for improvements that enable added business value in a cost-effective manner. This role supports critical smart manufacturing initiatives that will drive continuous improvement and business value.

Key Tasks and activities:

- Analyzing, enhancing and supporting business processes
- Developing and in-depth understanding of business processes in the area(s) of assignment, and general understanding of Company business
- Taking initiative to identify and implement system and/or process improvements to support business objectives
- Leading projects and effectively utilize project methodology and tools to deliver solutions and communicate status
- Operating within and influencing IS standards and conventions, promoting adherence within the IS organization
- Pursuing continuous learning consistent with changes in technology, using this to influence IS direction
- Programming and supporting of in-house developed applications

Benefits What we offer:

- Induction training, supportive team members
- 13th month salary, Cafeteria, Quaterly Bonus, Private Health Care, Pension contribution
- Flexible working hours, friendly environment and a good team
- Global exposure in your job yet situated in family-like surroundings